Serving the Lord was his calling and he devoted his life to it. He also enjoyed God's creation in his free time: driving in the mountains, going to springs and beaches and

Survivors include his wife of 40 years, Mona Canada Keister of the home; three sons and daughter-in-law, David and Ashleigh Keister of St. Petersburg, Florida, Kevin Keister of Brandon, Florida and Kenneth Keister of Toccoa; five grandchildren, Trey, Bryan, Audri, Kaleb and K.J.; two brothers Robert E. Keister, II and George Roland Watts, III both of Ypsilanti, Michigan; and survived by thousands of brothers and sisters in Christ.

A Memorial Service is to be held on Saturday, March 25, 2017, 2 P.M. at Toccoa Presbyterian Church with The Reverend Jim Lugo, Dr. Joe White and The Reverend Gary Pierstorff officiating. Mission Interest

Can your church help?

Volunteers are being scheduled to help with the rebuilding of homes damaged by Hurricanes Hermine and Matthew. Part of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance's mission is to offer hospitality to volunteers coming to serve others. The Florida PDA Network is looking for churches that have space to house volunteer mission teams. A typical team is usually 8-12 people that come for a week at a time to work with the local Long Term Recovery Organization. They are self-sufficient and only require a place to sleep, access to a kitchen where they can prepare simple meals and (hopefully) a shower. These groups are wonderful to get to know at a midweek fellowship gathering. If you might have space to share or would like more information, please contact Kathy Broyard at fla.pdan@pcusa.org or 941-483-0675. Thank you.

THE GRAND FLORIDA FINALE OF THE COALITION OF IMMOKALEE WORKERS' RETURN TO HUMAN RIGHTS TOUR, CALLING ON WENDY'S & PUBLIX TO MAKE A REAL,
VERIFIABLE COMMITMENT TO PROTECTING FARMWORKERS' FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS IN THEIR SUPPLY CHAINS.

BIT.LY/17-R2HR

Join farmworkers and Tampa Bay Fair Food for the grand Florida finale of the Coalition of Immokalee Workers' Return to Human Rights Tour in Tampa on Wednesday, March 29! We will call on Wendy's and Publix Supermarkets to make a real, verifiable commitment to protecting the fundamental human rights of farmworkers in their supply chains by joining the CIW's Fair Food Program.

The march begins at 5PM at Publix GreenWise (2401 W Azeele St.) and concludes at Wendy's (1615 W Kennedy Blvd). Parking will be provided.

CAMPAIGN BACKGROUND:

The 14-day, 12-city Return to Human Rights Tour (March 16-29, 2017) is the longest protest action in the last ten years of the Campaign for Fair Food, joining thousands of consumers in mobilizing for the national Wendy's Boycott. The boycott, launched by farm workers last March, has garnered tremendous support from tens of thousands of students, faith leaders, human rights, activists, and consumers of conscience across the country. In spite of the growing pressure, the final fast food holdout has dug in its heels and defended its decision to shift purchases away from Florida's tomato industry - hailed in the New York Times as the "best working environment in American agriculture" - and towards a Mexican industry, riddled with inhumane working conditions.

This March, the Fair Food Nation will call on Wendy's to return to the fields of Florida and join the Fair Food Program, where "quality" is defined not simply by the guarantee of tasty fruit, but also by the guarantee of respect and dignity for the women and men that harvest the fruit.

Upon the tour's own return to Florida, farm workers will come together with supporters from across Florida in the call for justice from both Wendy's and Publix Supermarkets, with a March and Vigil for Human Rights on March 29! For seven years, Publix has refused to engage farm workers in dialogue or commit to respecting their fundamental human rights. As a Florida-based supermarket and a company allegedly committed to being a responsible member of its community, it is high time they join the Fair Food Program.
