

Our Mission:

To identify and strengthen leaders so that every congregation makes new and mature disciples for Jesus Christ.

SEMINARY DEBT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

There are some great clergy assistance programs, and we want to be sure that all of our Ministers of the Word and Sacrament are aware of a $10,000 seminary debt reduction opportunity that has only recently become available to pastors in our Presbytery.

At the May Presbytery meeting, we approved a Student/Clergy Education Indebtedness Policy. The purpose of this policy is two-fold:

- For future seminary students to be made aware of the financial realities of seminary education, employment prospects, and future salary ranges
- To call attention to the availability of grant money, up to $2,500 per year over four years, for current minister members of the presbytery who are in their first six years of ministry and have student debt.

This assistance grant through the Board of Pensions is available for pastors who meet certain criteria. To qualify, ministers must have an effective salary below the median salary ($57,300 for 2016), must participate in the benefits plan of the PCUSA, and must attend a one-day financial planning seminar. These seminars are held at each PCUSA seminary annually, as well as other locations around the country. The next seminar will be held at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, GA on October 19, 2017 and requires registration on the Board of Pensions web site.

Until recently, ministers from our Presbytery were not eligible for this grant, as it required a presbytery wide indebtedness policy (which we approved in May). So if you're interested in taking advantage of the minister educational debt assistance grant program offered by the Board of Pensions, you are encouraged to complete and submit the application below to Coach/Coordinator Patrice Hatley (patrice@pbtty.com). Or if you think your pastor may qualify (remember, they have to be in their first six years of ministry), please forward this email to them.

Further information about this program and five additional grant programs for ministers may be found on the Board of Pensions web site here.

The application form may be found here.

St. Mark's Presbyterian Church VBS Material Available

St. Mark's Presbyterian church just finished Vacation Bible School. Their program this year was "Journey Off the Map!" They have curriculum and decorations that they would like to donate to a church that could use them.

You can contact Deneen Kerrigan at deneenk1122@gmail.com for more information.

Thanks for all of Your Prayers - Vicki ByRoade

Dear friends,

Pastors, preachers, chaplains, elders, deacons - please know how grateful I am for all your prayers, visits and cards during my recent hospital stay. I am at home now and am trying hard to "be still" and give my body a chance to heal. I understand that it might be quite a while before I am back to "normal". I am much better at doing than at being, so I continue to covet your prayers for patience.

Thank you again.

Many blessings,

Vicki ByRoade

It's Time To Update Your 2018 Employer Agreement

Between now and October 13, you should log on to Benefits Connect to review, update, and submit your Employer Agreement for 2018. The Agreement will detail coverage available for employees to elect during annual enrollment October 30 - November 17, 2017, through Benefits Connect.

The Board has launched the pensions.org section Selecting 2018 Benefits to help you review, update, and submit your Employer Agreement for 2018. The section addresses things to consider, the importance of benefit groups, and how to build your Agreement on Benefits Connect. Case studies are also available for reference.

The Employer Agreement on Benefits Connect is open now and costs for 2018 coverage are available.

Additional Resources

In addition to the pensions.org section Selecting 2018 Benefits, refer to the following resources:

- Guide to Selecting 2018 Benefits offers descriptions of benefits selections and instructions to complete the Employer Agreement.

- Selecting 2018 Benefits: Building Your Employer Agreement video provides a 90-second overview of the Employer Agreement process.
- Considerations for Selecting Benefits: Building Your Employer Agreement web tutorial reviews how to decide who will be covered, what benefits to offer, and how much employers and employees will pay toward the cost of benefits.
- Creating Your Employer Agreement web tutorial walks through the process on Benefits Connect of creating or updating your Employer Agreement.

As announced today on pensions.org, 2018 Employer Agreements must be submitted through Benefits Connect by October 13.

If you have questions about the benefits available to employees or the benefits selection process, contact the Board at 800-773-7752 (800-PRESPLAN).

FACING RACISM: A Vision of the Intercultural Community

Because the beloved community is what God intends for us, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is engaging in an ongoing campaign to share a wealth of antiracism resources with the greater church. As part of the Facing Racism campaign, books, studies, training sessions and other events are posted here to assist Mid Councils in their work against racism.

This month, we offer resources from the recently concluded Big Tent conference in St. Louis. With the theme "Race, Reconciliation and Reformation," Big Tent emphasized the hope of the gospel and its power to transform society in our current cultural context marked by anxiety, racial division, political animosity and economic inequality.

Call to action: Plan an educational event with your congregations using Big Tent resources like Bible study with discussion questions or other resources that are available here.

May God bless your witness as you share these antiracism resources on your website, in e-newsletters and on social media, and as you help equip Presbyterians to engage in issues of racism. Thank you for joining together in the efforts of the church to become the community of faith God calls us to be.

Yours in Christ,

PC(USA) Communications Directors

Upcoming Changes to Pulpit Supply

If you're unfamiliar with the pulpit supply list, it's a list of pastors approved by the Commission on Ministry (COM) to preach at any church in case that church's pastor is on vacation or otherwise unavailable. By the way, if you're a pastor who'd like to be on this list and currently isn't, please contact your Regional COM chair.

This doesn't mean churches can only have guest preachers from this list (to the contrary, a session can have anyone, even an Elder, fill the pulpit), but it's provided as a resource to help sessions and worship committees find someone when there's need. This is particularly useful during the summer months, I believe; you can see the list at this link:

<http://presbyteryoftampabay.com/PulpitSupply.php>

What's changing next year, starting January 1st, are the fees churches are asked to pay pastors. The COM approves the amount of expected compensation for pulpit supply, and will be raising the cost as well as introducing tiered fees based on the size of the church. In 2018, the pulpit supply honorarium will be raised from $150 to $175 for churches up to 200 members and to $225 for churches over 200 members, along with an increase from $50 to $75 for each additional service on the same Sunday. This is in addition to mileage costs (currently $0.54 a mile, but subject to changes to the IRS mileage rate).

So a smaller church with one service would go from $150 plus mileage to $175 plus mileage, while a larger (200+ member) church with 2 services on one Sunday would go from paying $200 plus mileage ($150 + $50 for the extra service) to $300 ($225 + $75) plus mileage. A large church with 3 services would be expected to offer $375 plus mileage, and so on. Please be aware of this when planning your 2018 budget, and reach out to your COM representative if you have further questions.

Memorial Service for Betts Huntley

We now have more details regarding the Tampa area memorial service for Betts Huntley.

According to Martha:

"A lot of people have asked about Betts' memorial service in FL - we had to move it from First Presbyterian, Safety Harbor to Hope Presbyterian Church, 1698 S. Belcher Rd., Clearwater because we kept hearing of more people planning to come. It will be at 3 p.m. on Saturday, August 26. Please spread the word, Tampa Bay friends!"

First Saftey Harbor can still help forward messages to her via memorials@fpcsh.org for folks who don't already have the family's contact info.

Regional Commission Meetings Reminder

This is just a reminder to those of you on Sessions that it's getting close to the time where you'll need to elect commissioners to the Summer Regional Commission Meetings. These will begin in 7 weeks, so it's time to put this item on your next meeting agenda! If you don't know how many people from your church are asked to attend as commissioners, please check out this document.

More details and information will be posted in the eNews and on the website as they become available, but the basic details are below:

East Regional Commission:

- August 24th, 10am, at Lake Alfred Presbyterian Church

Central Regional Commission:

- August 31st, 9am, at Bloomingdale Presbyterian Church

West Regional Commission:

- September 7th, 4pm, at First Presbyterian Church of Dunedin

Changes to the Book of Order Official

With little fanfare, the amendments to the Book of Order, having been ratified by the requisite number of Presbyteries, officially went into effect Sunday, June 25 (1 year after the adjournment of the 222nd General Assembly). When the new Book of Order becomes available, I will post that information here.

While there are a number of changes that are now official (which you can read about in the Presbyterian Outlook here), I want to highlight the biggest two: a new Directory for Worship, and the change in the way we name our ordained leaders.

First, if you haven't yet had a chance to read it, the new Directory for Worship is here. So if you have any questions you need resolving from the Book of Order, make sure you're referencing the new document, not the 2015-2017 Book. The new Directory is much more flexible than the previous version, with only 25 "shalls" vs. 100+ in the old W- section. But mostly it's just more streamlined and easier to read, about 9,000 words shorter than before.

Second, we "Teaching Elders" have now returned to being "Ministers of the Word and Sacrament" or simply "Ministers," while "Ruling Elders" are now more generally known as "Elders." "Commissioned Ruling Elders" also return to being "Commissioned Lay Pastors."

In other news out of the 222nd GA, The Way Forward Commission released its mid-term report recently on the changes that it will suggest at the 2018 General Assembly, and I think it's worth checking out.

General Assembly Commissioner Application Info

Although we just voted on the amendments from the 222nd General Assembly (GA), it's already time to consider applying for the 223rd GA!

The next GA will be held in St. Louis from June 16-23rd, 2018, and will be an unusually excellent opportunity to participate in the governance and vision of the national church. Several pivotal reports are due to be made at this GA, including the Way Forward Commission's Report (charged with restructuring the national agencies like OGA, PMA, etc.), and the 2020 Vision Team (charged with coming up with a new vision and plan for the denomination). Read more about these upcoming reports here (basics) and here (detailed).

Our Presbytery will elect three teaching elders and three ruling elders as commissioners, alongside three teaching elder and three ruling elder alternates, and a Young Adult Advisory Delegate (YAAD) and alternate.

The deadline for consideration is September 15th, and it's an involved process that requires Session approval, so I'd encourage you to start soon if you're interested in applying.

Also, if you know of someone who'd be a good Commissioner or YAAD, please forward this email to them.

Witnessing for Peace and Wholeness in a Land called 'Holy'

A Presbyterian Peacemaking Conference in Israel/Palestine

April 29-May 12, 2018

Join the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program as we experience this remarkable and troubled region, encounter its diverse people, explore its rich history and complex current situation, and engage with those who seek its peace. By attending this conference, you will be

- inspired by the stories of Christian peacemakers in the Holy Land, walk in the footsteps of the Prince of Peace and encounter contemporary Palestinians and Israelis;
- equipped by engagement with Christian, Muslim and Jewish leaders, experience contextual theology and study peacemaking practices within the framework of PCUSA policy;
- connected with global and local partners to take meaningful action for a just and lasting peace in the region.

APPLICATIONS - Apply online through November 15, 2017. Notification and commitment packets will be sent shortly after your application is received and processed. First-time visitors to the Holy Land are encouraged to attend. Previous conference participants and seasoned travelers to the region are welcome as well. Must be 18 years old.

Apply now

COST - The double-occupancy rate for the conference is $2,600. This includes all conference expenses (including all meals, accommodations, programs, tips, tours, and on the ground transportation). Airline travel is not included. Limited single occupancy is available for an additional charge.

HOTELS - The conference includes 11 nights of lodging. The current conference hotels include: The Gloria Hotel of Old Jerusalem, Bethlehem's Manager Square Hotel, and the Golden Crown Hotel in Nazareth.

TRAVEL - Participants are responsible for their travel and may book their own airline tickets, but all itineraries must be submitted for approval by the conference registrar prior to ticketing. Departures from the US should be on Sunday, April 29 to arrive to Tel Aviv (TLV) on Monday, April 30. Return flights may depart TLV on Friday evening, May 11 to arrive in the US on Saturday May 12.

SMALL GROUPS - Conference participants will be placed into small groups led by group leaders. These teams will engage in preparation before the conference, meet as a group during the conference, and consider meaningful collective action upon returning home.

For more information, including a sample conference schedule and information from past conferences, visit presbyterianmission.org/mosaic or contact the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program at 800-728-7228 x 5805 or 502-569-5805.

Mediation Skills Training Institute

Mediation Skills Training Institute for Church Leaders (Oct.2-6, 2017, Lakeland, FL)

Whether in the home, school, community, church or workplace conflict is an inevitable part of life. Having the skills to function effectively in emotionally intense, conflicted situations is important for all of us, especially those of us who are leaders. The Lombard Mennonite Peace Center has trained hundred of church leaders from a wide range of denominations in the skills that are needed to deal with conflict in the church setting through its Mediation Skills Training Institute. The Mediation Skills Training Institute equips people for working in various conflicted situations, including church disputes.

Participants learn about:

- Biblical foundations-finding renewal in conflict.
- Individual styles of response to conflict.
- Win-win negotiation skills.
- Skills to mediate conflict between individuals.
- Tools to effectively manage congregational conflict.
- Skills for serving as an outside consultant to conflicted churches.

The institute includes lectures, discussion, and guided practice in role-plays. Active and practical in focus, the sessions emphasize hands-on skills training and real-life role-plays based on the kinds of conflicts faced by participants.

You can view the brochure here, or register online (it's a little cheaper to register via mail using the brochure).
