WORKSHOPS

Session 1: 9:15-10:30

#1 Crafts to Supplement Your Curriculum

It's time to get hands-on with a medley of creative items that will allow a child to explore the Bible stories as well as a variety of creative media.

Leader: Nancy Creedon, Children's Ministry Coordinator, Palma Ceia, Tampa

#2 Rotation Model Sunday School

In a SPIN over choosing church curriculums? recruiting teachers? creating enthusiasm among students? Don't SPIN - ROTATE - or more specifically explore the difference the Rotation Workshop Model can have on your whole children's ministry! Discover whether this would be a possibility for your ministry.

Leader: Linda Beckham, Certified Christian Educator, Palma Ceia, Tampa

#3 Making the Most of Your Curriculum

Discover tips for preparing your curriculum and techniques to make it work for your particular age group and teaching environment. Bring your leader's guide and student book if you have them available.

Leader: Helen Kantner, Certified Christian Educator

#4 Wee Believe, We Believe, I Believe and More!

We'll explore all the great curriculum options from the PCUSA from nursery to the brand new adult Always Being Reformed. Good for everyone interested in what is available and especially helpful for those using these materials that are by Presbyterians for Presbyterians.

Leader: Leslee Kirkconnell, Certified Christian Educator

Session 2: 10:45-12:00

#5 Essence of Adult Curriculum Choices

What works with adults of different age groups? Come explore a plethora of curriculum options for Sunday morning classes and small group ministry.

Leaders: Kenny Ellis, Director of Discipleship, and Mike Loudon, Pastor, First, Lakeland

#6 Resourcing Our Youth

Youth Ministry is a vital part of our education program and encompasses more than one meeting or one day a week. There are many resources available. We'll explore different options and also how to evaluate all those flyers and catalogs that promise to be the "best youth ministry tool ever."

#7 More Than Childcare

Come explore the different programs and curriculum choices available to our "little ones" and preschoolers as we share their true abilities to learn, praise and worship our awesome God.

Leader: Vonnie Klein, Director of Education, Christ, Largo;

#8 Welcoming All God's Children: Ministering to special-needs children and their families

Our churches can provide Hope for families of children with all kinds of special needs - autism, developmental delays, and physical challenges. This workshop will offer a basic framework for families and CE committees/Worship committees/Teachers as they work together to help all children experience the love of Jesus Christ.

Leader: Evelyn McMullen, Director of Christian Education, North Lakeland
